GOLDEN AGE

SILVER AGE

MODERN AGE

THE GREEN LANTERN
BY Mort Weisinger AND Bill Finger
WHEN ALAN SCOTT, AN ENGINEER, RISES FROM A WRECKED TRAIN, HE FINDS HE IS ALIVE BECAUSE OF A MYSTERIOUS GREEN LANTERN! THE LANTERN IS TO GIVE HIM SUPER-NATURAL POWERS IF HE HAS FAITH IN HIMSELF, FOR THE BASIS OF THIS STRANGE FORCE IS WILL-POWER!
A RING IS MADE FROM PART OF THE GREEN LANTERN... A RING THAT IS TO TOUCH THE LANTERN ONCE IN EVERY TWENTY FOUR HOURS TO RETAIN ITS POTENCY. ALAN SCOTT RETAINS ONLY HIS NORMAL STRENGTH ALTHOUGH HE IS IMMUNE TO ALL METALS! WITH THE RING, ALAN SCOTT BECOMES A SCOURGE OF EVIL... BECOMES KNOWN, IN FACT, AS
ON THE CITY OF METROPOLIS, CYRUS GORSON, COMMISSIONER OF PUBLIC WORKS, INSPECTS THE BIDS OF VARIOUS COMPANIES FOR THE BUILDING OF A NEW LIBRARY FOR THE CITY.
GENTLEMEN, THE CITY HAS DECIDED TO ACCEPT THE BID MADE BY MULLER CONTRACTORS!
MULLER?
WHAT?
THANK YOU ALL... GOOD DAY, GENTLEMEN!
WHY, THIS IS AN OUTRAGE!
MULLER AGAIN!
AMONG THE GROUP IS ALAN SCOTT, YOUNG ENGINEER, WITH HIS EMPLOYER JOHN HALL...
I CAN'T UNDERSTAND WHY YOU DIDN'T GET THE BID, MR. HALL... I AM SURE IT WAS ABOUT THE LOWEST PRICE THERE!
MULLER WOULD GET THE BID ANYWAY, NO MATTER WHAT HIS PRICE! IT'S COMMON TALK THAT COMMISSIONER GORSON IS A SILENT PARTNER IN THE MULLER CONCERN! BUT NOBODY CAN PROVE IT!
YOU MEAN THAT THE TAXPAYERS PAY AN EXTRA HIGH PRICE FOR A LIBRARY SO THAT GORSON CAN MAKE MONEY FOR HIS OWN COMPANY?

JW'S NOTE

Whew! The fourth issue already! Seems like just yesterday that we launched issue number one. But hey, we're having loads of fun – and, to tell the truth, we're starting to get the bighead from all the compliments we're getting! Yep, Comics Source is a bigger success than we ever hoped for! Thanks!

The second issue was 100% better than the first, the third issue improved upon the second, and now the fourth issue has some refinements not found in the third. Each issue gets better and better, both editorially and graphically. That's all thanks to Elizabeth Davis, our editor and all around electronic publishing genius. And she has some surprising plans for upcoming issues – be watching!

Speaking of plans, our summer plans include appearances at all the major shows, starting with Dragon Con in Atlanta and then moving on to Chicago, San Diego, and the big National Show in Philadelphia. We will have lots of neat freebies and premiums, as well as complete information on how you can use Comics Source to put more dollars in your pocket. So stop by and say Hi!

Finally, retailers who have been looking for new ways to make an extra buck (and who isn't!) should be interested in our "Official Listing Station" program. If you've ever had a customer ask for a book you didn't have, or want to sell you a book you didn't need, then you are a prime candidate for our Comics Source Listing Station program. To learn more, drop your business card in the mail or give us a call at 1 (615) 265-5515.

We're really excited about the progress Comics Source has made thus far. Keep reading this page to find out about other great developments we have planned for the future.

Last year one product line sold more comic book bags than any other.

ComiCovers™

Polyethylene • Polypropylene

Current • Silver Age • Golden Age • Magazine

Since 1981, the nation's leading brand name of collectors supplies!

In the last decade, over one-half billion ComiCovers™ have been purchased by collectors to protect their favorite comic books. In that period of time ComiCovers™ has had plenty of tough competition. We've seen our rivals come and go. Some offered gimmicks; others spouted scientific mumbo-jumbo. But not one of them ever came close to surpassing ComiCovers' winning sales record.

Unlike our competitors' cheap foreign-made bags, ComiCovers™ are produced according to the highest quality American manufacturing practices available today.

Plus, our customers rely on our history of providing premium products with uninterrupted availibility.

And don't forget that all our products are covered by Moondog's Total Satisfaction Guarantee:

If for any reason you are not fully satisfied with our ComiCare™ brand products, then simply return them for a full refund!

CASH FOR ARTICLES!

DOs

- Mail submissions to arrive by the first day of the month.
- Type your article. Double space between lines.

DON'Ts

- Don't use cliches like "collect what you like" – collectors are tired of hearing this.
- Don't call to ask if we liked your article or if we are going to use it.
- Don't make vague statements such as "going up" or "hot" without backing it up with specifics and prices.
- Don't abbreviate titles, eg. FF, ASM, WW – readers shouldn't have to translate.
- Don't wander aimlessly in your article or get sidetracked. Stick to your subject.

Comics Source is always looking for thoughtful, well-written, concise articles of interest to our readers. Send your typed, double spaced manuscript to: Elizabeth Davis, Editor, Comics Source Magazine, 2401 Broad St., Chattanooga, TN 37408. Your name, address, and telephone number should be on the manuscript. All manuscripts become the property of Comics Source Magazine upon payment, and may not be published elsewhere without our permission.

$150 CASH paid for the best THE ADVANCED COLLECTOR® article each month. Minimum of at least 1500 words. Articles in this category will be of a more advanced nature and will focus on topics such as accurate grading methods, investing strategies, buying/trading methods, and other areas of interest to the more advanced collector.

$100 CASH paid for the best MARKET MAKER REPORTS® each month. Ask to be placed on our mailing list or submit your report by the first day of each month. Minimum of at least 1000 words. Market Reports should include plenty of current selling prices and should focus on the best-sellers. Open to retailers only. Unused reports can not be returned.

$100 CASH paid for the best Collecting Original Art. At least 1000 words about an area of original comic book art with lots of current market values. Photos a must.

$100 CASH paid for the best Checklist articles about a particular comic character that includes a complete checklist of character appearances. A good checklist should be at least 1000 words and should include a history of the character including his origin, it should also include a rundown of current market values for each issue the character appears in.

$100 CASH paid for the best submissions to LET'S COLLECT!® column which focuses on a different genre within the comics market each month, such as westerns, sci-fi, teen romance, movie tie-in, TV tie-in, etc. Length should be at least 1000 words. You may query first if you wish.

$100 CASH paid for Other Stuff! Articles about collecting comic book related items such as trading cards, posters, and action figures. Articles in this category should be at least 1000 words and contain current market values.

$60 CASH paid for the best Soapbox each month. As a collector, what are you concerned about, what trends bother you, what needs to be done to improve our hobby? Good Soapbox articles will be constructive and positive, about 500 words in length, and will address a current hot topic or trend.

$50 CASH paid for TOP TEN TO WATCH!® articles. Articles in this category will single out ten comics from any time period that could be good investments. Length should be at least 500 words. If we don't have photos of the comics in our file, we would appreciate good photos or we can photo for you.

$20 CASH paid for the best TIP SHEET® reports. A good tip will feature a sleeper issue that is currently over-looked and under-valued. A winning article will be around 200 words and will explain why the title or issue is important, what the story is about, who did the art, why it is currently over-looked, what its current value is, and what its potential value could be.

$20 CASH paid for the best Find-Of-The-Month. This column will deal with great collections or rare items that have recently turned up. A winning article will be around 200 words and will tell the story of how the find came to be. Photos of the lucky finder and some of the rare items are a must.

$20 CASH paid for the best Who's Who article each month. This is a dealer or collector profile spotlighting an important personage or even your favorite local store.

If you would like to write on topics other than those suggested here, you must send a written query letter stating your idea to: Elizabeth Davis, Editor, Comics Source Magazine, 2401 Broad St., Chattanooga, TN 37408. We will inform you within three weeks whether your idea has been accepted. If it is accepted, we will pay at the rate of 6¢ per word, 1000 word minimum. Unsolicited manuscripts for these columns are not accepted and will not be returned.

NEWS NOTES

Keeping You Informed On All The Industry News

Female Cartoonists In The Spotlight In New Book

"The Year Of The Woman" has not passed up the comic industry. A new book to be released next month will highlight the work of women cartoonists past and present.

Researched and written by underground cartoonist Trina Robins, A Century of Women Cartoonists will trace the progress of women cartoonists from the turn of the century to the present.

The book includes the work of Grace Drayton, Rose O'Neill, Alison Bechdel, Melinda Beggie, Mary Fleener, Lynda Barry, Julie Doucet and Roberta Gregory.

DC

Catwoman Gets Her Own Series

Look out Batman, Catwoman will be debuting in her own ongoing series this month. The DC title will feature the talents of writer Joe Duffy, penciller Jim Balent and veteran Batman inker Dick Giordano.

Topps, Dark Horse Team Up To Produce Star Wars Cards

Dark Horse Comics and the Topps Company, Inc. have announced a joint venture in which Topps will manufacture trading cards based on Dark Horse comic characters.

The exclusive agreement began with Dark Horse's Classic Star Wars #8, released last month, which was polybagged with a promotional trading card. The Topps 140-card Star Wars Galaxy series is being shipped to comic and card retailers and should be available this month.

He'll Be Back

Arnold Schwarzenegger will appear in comic book and trading card adaptations of his upcoming movie, The Last Action Hero. The Topps full-color releases are scripted by Stefan Petrucha, penciled by Jerome Moore, and inked by John Myberg, and will be in stores this month.

SkyBox To Introduce Pogs Collectibles

Pogs, the hottest collectible in Hawaii these days, are on their way to the mainland. In Hawaii, they are distributed inside the caps of milk jugs. The small cardboard discs are printed on one side and are used in a game similar to marbles. The SkyBox pogs will be sold in comic stores and will feature four different Supermen from the forthcoming Reign of Superman storyline and one "Slammer."

Malibu To Release First Completely Die Cut Cover

Popular Protectors character Ferret will appear in his own 4-issue miniseries from Malibu. The first issue of the miniseries will be released this month and will feature the first completely die-cut comic cover.

Malibu is no stranger to such gimmicks; Protectors #5 contained a "force beam" hole through the entire issue, designed to emulate a wound through character Nightmask.

SCI-FI

SkyBox To Offer Star Trek Painted Artwork Collection

SkyBox will release a set of all new Star Trek original painted artwork by sci-fi and Star Trek artists in July. The 100-card set includes seven subsets: Aliens, Characters, Spaceships, SpaceScapes, Scenes from the original series, Scenes From Star Trek: The Next Generation, and Scenes from all six Star Trek motion pictures. Keith Birdsong is among the thirteen artists whose work will be featured.

Move Over Barney

The movie adaptation for Steven Spielberg's upcoming dinosaur movie, Jurassic Park, will be released next month from Topps. The story is about genetically altered engineered dinosaurs that get out of control.

The four-part series is written by Walter Simonson, pencilled by Gil Kane and inked by George Perez. The direct market version will come polybagged with Topps trading cards.

LEGAL

Hockey Biography Comic Ruled Out Of Bounds

A federal judge recently ordered Revolutionary Comics to stop using the name and symbols of the Pittsburgh Penguins hockey team in its unauthorized biographical comic featuring Mario Lemieux.

The temporary restraining order was ordered after Hockey Associates claimed that the unauthorized biography would "irreparably injure the reputation" of the Penguins hockey team.

Revolutionary president Herbert Shapiro claims the biography, which will appear in Revolutionary's Sports Superstars series, is protected under the First Amendment. 15,000 copies of the issue have already been sold.

TIPSHEET

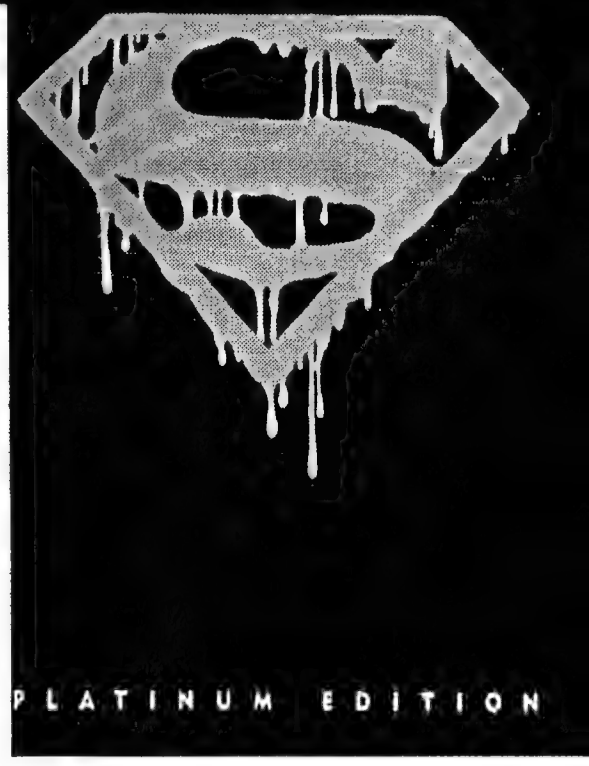
Because The Smart Investor Is The Informed Investor

HOT PICKS

The Death of Superman, prisms and die-cutting. What won't the comics industry throw at the new comics market in an attempt to get collectors to buy, buy, buy! Comics Source's Tip Sheet slices through the hype, however, and judges new comics the old fashioned way — based on the good old yardstick of quality and supply and demand. Remember: You heard it here first!

This month, we focus our attention on two promotional give-aways, Marvel Collector's Edition and the Spider-Man Special Edition. Plus Valiant and, yes, The Death of Superman.

SUPERMAN #75 (PLATINUM)



I know, I know. Who cares? He came back, didn't he? Well yes, but that's not why it's important. This is the "platinum" edition that was available on a one-per-comic store basis. It was a special limited, numbered book only available to retailers. Because of the low print run, it will demand a higher price. Now you may ask "He really didn't die, and it was all a big gimmick, so why should I get this book?"

You would be right on all accounts, but look what kind of impact this little book had on the community. Everyone had to know. Was he really going to die? My whole family wanted a copy! Superman is as American as apple pie. Who wasn't shocked when they read those last pages? The book, ever if it was for just a little while, grabbed America's attention. The Earth's mighties superhero had fallen.

Now you would be right if you said they printed a ton of the black bagged #75 but we're talking about the "Platinum" #75. Big difference! It's going to be har to get this little piece of history, but you can bet it will be well worth it!

NEW NEXT MONTH:
RENEGAR'S MONTHLY TRADING CARD PICK!

SPIDER-MAN SPECIAL EDITION (UNICEF)

Another mail-in. Only this one was for the UNICEF charity organization. You donated $5 to UNICEF and received ... Venom! Yes, the Trial of Venom. An interesting story featuring Spider-Man, Daredevil and America's favorite villain (or is that good guy?) Venom. This book should be hot for a number of reasons:

For one thing, it has a low print run compared to other Venom stories. Also, Venom is becoming a major character in the Marvel Universe, so any appearance will be sought after later. Plus, the book can no longer be ordered; the offer expired in December. And since most people were unaware of the offer going on at the time, the book will only be available on the secondary market.

All this makes this book a very good investment. The only problem will be in acquiring the copies now that the offer is over and before the whole world knows that this is a great book to invest in! It's hot! Good luck!

MARVEL COLLECTOR'S EDITION (CHARLESTON CHEW)

This book is only available by sending in one wrapper from a Charleston Chew bar and $.50. Why is this a good book to have? Simple. It's got Spider-Man, Wolverine (by Sam Kieth), Ghost Rider and the Silver Surfer. All these stories wrapped into one book and only available through this offer.

The hard part in this deal is finding the candy bars. One good reason that this is an excellent investment is that just like most mail-ins, people are too lazy or don't take the time to fulfill the requirements. This will usually mean a low print run. So as an investment, this book has potential. Collectors may also have to invest in a visit with their local dentist after such a sweet deal!

RAI #0

Okay, I'll admit it. I bought the book for the cover! What a cool cover! Rai #0 is probably one of the most key books in the entire Valiant line. Not because of a first appearance, but because it's the last appearance of most of the popular characters in the Valiant universe. I don't know about you, but I think that's a impressive thing for a company to do. It's also the first full appearance and death of Bloodshot! If you're one of those people that turn to the back of the book to see what happens, then this is your kind of book!

Past Trend May Show Future Investment Potential

By Mike Bradley and Andy Kocher

By studying what has happened in the past, we may be able to make conclusions about the investment potential of new comics. In reviewing price guides it is readily apparent that the books that appear to provide the best potential tend to have one or more of the following characteristics: first issue, first appearance, anniversary issue, origin, significant event (death, marriage, etc.), popular artist or writer, and guest appearance. It appears that these characteristics are indicative of superior investment potential. However, it is not true that all books of these types will be good investments.

Certain factors may indicate the investment potential of a comic book:

Hyped by the national mainstream media. Books of this type include Batman #429 (death of Robin), Superman #50 (proposal), GI Joe #1-2 (cartoon), and Alpha Flight #106 (AIDS revelation). Fueled by demand from speculators and purchasers from outside the hobby, these issues quickly rose in price. Tremendous returns could be realized if you bought these books at cover price and sold at peak demand. However, they do not appear to have been good long-term investments. Superman #75 appears to fit in this category.

Hyped by the hobby. Books of this type include the very popular first issues of: Spider-Man, X-Men, X-Force, Robin, and most Image titles. Also strongly hyped were not-so-popular first issues of Ms Mystic, American Flagg, Ronin, Cloak and Dagger, and Alpha Flight. These were heavily ordered and purchased in quantity by speculators. Regardless of any guide prices to the contrary, these books are not being repurchased by retailers at prices over their original cover price if at all. The supply far exceeds the demand for these issues and many dealers have significant surpluses.

> “By examining past trends in comic book supply and demand, even a newcomer to the hobby can make informed purchasing decisions.”

Unhyped books — poor investments. There are multitudes of these types of comics. Some examples are: She-Hulk, Nth Man, Captain Atom, Manhunter, Femforce and Miracleman. These comics never attained sufficient popularity to make them sought after as back issues, regardless of the quality of the story. However, tastes change over time and who knows which title or character will be the next Ghost Rider, Magnus or Solar.

Unhyped books — good investments. This appears to be the area where the savvy collector has the potential to make the most money. As a rule, these books are in lower supply than the hyped books. However, there are several other reasons why these books have increased in price. For example, New Warriors #1 and Ghost Rider #1 were under-ordered by retailers because neither book's creative team was considered hot at the time. Consequently the quality stories and art took people by surprise. Batman and Dark Knight Returns are also examples of this category. Retailers under-ordered these books because of the high retail price ($2.95). These books gained popularity when collectors realized that the quality of art and story was worth the price. This was also the case with Sandman #1 and Hellblazer #1.

Perhaps the most dramatic example of this phenomenon is early Valiants, including Magnus #1 and Solar #1. These books were heavily under-ordered for several reasons. They came out at nearly the same time as X-Force #1 and X-Men #1, and they had a higher cover price than any monthly Marvel or DC. Valiant was a new company with no track record, and many retailers believed it might go the way of many other independent publishers before them. Now, however, these early Valiants are selling for well above X-Force #1 and X-Men #1, and are extremely scarce.

By examining these and other past trends in comic book supply and demand, even a newcomer to the hobby can make informed purchasing decisions.

The FUTURES Market

JUNE

Summer's In Full Swing Now — And You Know What That Means! The Publishers Have Brought Out Their Heavy Hitters To Compete For Your Dollars. Here Are Our Hot Picks and Ones To Miss For June.

RATING KEY

Worth Its Weight In Gold

A Good Bet

Moderate Future Demand

Fool's Gold

Whether you love or hate Image and Valiant Comics, you can't deny they have made a big impact on how people choose the comics they read and collect, and the market in general.

That has never been more clear than this month, when Dark Horse and Malibu start their own superhero lines. Dark Horse's Arcadia titles are thin, but priced accordingly, and look at least fairly interesting. More impressive is Malibu's Ultraverse line, which is the product of a lot of planning by a lot of well-known writers in the field.

Who can say how these comics will be accepted by readers and collectors. One thing is certain, however. It is Image and Valiant — the two companies that will give these books the most competition — that also give them their best chance for survival. Because it wasn't so long ago that Valiant was just that goofy company that printed Mario Brothers comics and Image was a daydream in the minds of some Marvel slaves.

By the time these books start coming out, summer will be in full swing and these books will compete alongside not only Image and Valiant, but the Big Two as well. The dollar only goes so far, however, and if these new books look as good as their advance art suggests and the stories read as good as the synopses sound, then it will likely be Marvel and DC (in that order) that suffer the most from this new blood.

That's kind of funny, considering Marvel made its big splash into superhero comics much the same way in the 1960s, upstaging the more established DC comics.

Well, it's called turnabout, Marvel. And it's called quality of product. You could also call it natural selection: only the strongest survive.

If these new comic lines do their jobs, they'll weed out about 50 or 60 worthless Marvel titles.

Now, here are the books distributors are highlighting for June release.

DC

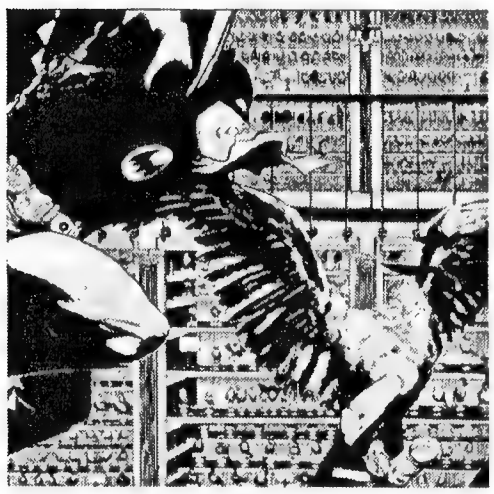
Batman Annual #17

$2.50 color
By Moench and Barreto

In part eight of the Bloodlines annual crossover story, Batman joins forces with Decimator to fight the aliens attempting to infest the Earth. This plot is straight out of the 1950s B movies, and the future value of this annual is nil. But it's Batman.

Batman/Grendel #1: Devil's Riddle (of 2)

$4.95
By Matt Wagner
The Hunter Rose Grendel of Wagner's golden days comes to Gotham City ready to match wits with the Dark Knight. This one has been anticipated for several years, with Wagner's work tied up in legalese surrounding the old Comico company. No one needs any provocation to buy this. Wagner's Hunter Rose/Grendel and Batman is one of those team-up fights that comic book freaks dream about. This one will not likely disappoint readers — or collectors.



Batman/Grendel #2: Devil's Masque

$4.95 color
By Matt Wagner
The fight. Need we say more? I didn't think so.

Catwoman

$1.95 color
By Duffy, Balent and Giordano
This one's long overdue. As Catwoman's new ongoing monthly title starts, she's in too deep with Bane and looks for a way out. Remember the mini-series of several years ago and look at its value. Jo Duffy is a strong writer and the artwork looks pretty good — nothing fancy, just good, solid work. Don't pay any attention to the spot varnish on the cover — just buy it. You'll probably be glad you did.

DC Universe: Trinity #1 (of 2)

$2.95 color
By Jones, Friedman, Kitson, Ha and Charest
In this, another DC attempt at cosmic crossovers, the Green Lantern Corps, L.E.G.I.O.N. '93 and the Darkstars work together to stop an ancient group of deities out to "remake" the universe. If this floats your boat, that's fine. But don't sink any money into it that you expect to see again.

Green Lantern Annual #2

By Jones, Byrd and Davis
Part seven of the Bloodlines crossover finds Hal in Coast City, or what's left of Coast City. Most of the people have been transformed into horrible monsters, and he gets a little help fighting them from Nightblade.

Jonah Hex: Two Gun Mojo #1 (of 5)

$2.95 color
By Landsdale, Truman and Glanzman
DC's standby frontier gunfighter returns in this new Vertigo title with a different twist: a cross between Unforgiven and Night of the Living Dead, DC says. Jonah and a pal ride into Mud Creed, where dead outlaws walk the streets as zombies. Normally this wouldn't work. But normally, horror novelist Joe R. Lansdale isn't writing comics. The author of The Night Runners and Cold in July, Lansdale has built quite a name for himself in the field. Just in the western and/or zombie tradition, check out Dead in the West or The Magic Wagon. If this comic comes anywhere near that level of entertainment, you'll want this one just to read. As an investment, look more at Tim Truman's art. As entertainment, it's probably pure gold. As an investment, unfortunately, it's most likely fool's gold.

Justice League International Annual #4

$2.50 color
By Jones and Parobeck
In part nine of the Bloodlines crossover the British government creates a new hero to fight the alien infestation alongside the Justice League. Wake me up when this crap is over.

Metamorpho #1 (of 4)

By Waid, Nolan and Boyd
The former Outsider and Justice Leaguer goes solo on an inane hunt for his son. The multi-colored, multi-shaped element may may be fun reading for old fans, but the series won't be in high demand any time soon.

New Titans #100

$3.50 color
By Wolfman, Grummett and Vey
Raven returns from the dead to crash the wedding of Nightwing and Starfire in the 48-page anniversary issue. Seeing as how Dick Grayson is 60-something, it's about time he got hitched. The Nightwing vs. Deathwing fight might be of interest, too.

Robin Annual #2

By Dixon, Dwyer and Garcia-Lopez
Robin fights the alien parasites in this installment of the Bloodlines crossover. Bad news: this Bloodlines crap will continue next month. This annual may have a little — just a little — more value than the others, though, because Robin titles at least have a pulse.

Vertigo Jam #1

$3.95 color
By various writers and artists
This Whitman Sampler of the Vertigo line has a little potential. It also has mini-stories featuring Sandman, Hellblazer, Animal Man and the Doom Patrol among others. A definite maybe.

Marvel

Daredevil #319

By Chichester, McDaniel and LaRosa
This issue starts a six-issue storyline that is supposed to change DD's direction for some time to come. Remember what happened last time they decided to "change his direction" — he was jobless and homeless for about five years. Better get in on this one early.

Darkhold #11

$2.25 color
By Cooper, Tyler and Downs
Ghost Rider appears in this part of the "Midnight Massacre" storyline. With two covers, the outer one being made of black parchment paper with gold ink. Wow.

Deadpool #1 (of 4)

$2.50 color
By Nicieza, Madureira and Farmer
Deadpool is looking for his dead boss' will while being chased by Slayback, evidently a bad dude. Lots of fights and a metallic debossed cover. Oh boy. Well, it's kind of mutant related. You know what that means.

Death's Head II/Killpower: Battletide II #1 (of 4)

By Abnett, Lanning and Senior
Any book with a punctuation-title-from-Hell like this doesn't deserve even one gold bar, but Hulk guest-stars, and why let petty frustrations get in the way of a Battletide force intent on destroying the Earth.

Ghost Rider #40

$2.25 color
By Mackie, Garney and Ivy
Another Midnight Massacre crossover, complete with parchment cover. It's got a Demogoblin appearance, too.

Ghost Rider & Blaze: Spirits of Vengeance #13

$2.25 color
By Mackie, Kubert and Janson
The finale of the Midnight Massacre — good, I was already sick of it — along with the black parchment covers. Marvel thinks this is really hot, but it's closer to lukewarm.

Killpower: The Early Years #1 (of 4)

$2.95 color
By Barr and Nocon
From the pages of Battletide and Motormouth, the ultimate killing machine stars in this apparently plotless mini-series.

Marvel Swimsuit Special 1993

$4.50 color
By Hughes, Maguire, Madureira, Jusko and others
Pant, pant, it's another swimsuit issue for the socially challenged, this one with a Rogue cover by Joe Jusko. This title has been around long enough for everyone to know that you just buy this one for the pictures — although Jusko's pretty popular ...

Morbius #12

$2.25 color
By Wright, Wagner and Witherby
Werewolf by Night joins the Midnight Massacre (I know, I thought that was over, too) along with the Midnight Sons.

Night Thrasher #1

$2.95 color
By Nicieza, Bagley, Saltares and Mahlstedt
Mutant lovers, take note. The former New Warrior star has graduated to his own book, and in this issue he's saving his old teammates in Chinatown. This one comes with a flashy cover, but really doesn't need it.

Nightstalkers #10

$2.25 color
By Chichester and Van Wormer
This is where the Midnight Massacre starts — now we know who to blame it on. Marvel's pretty high on this, but then they were high on the New Universe at one time.

Sabretooth #1 (of 4)

$2.95 color
By Hama and Texeira
Wolverine's deadliest foe gets his own mini-series, and readers get a look at his background. As the series starts, Sabretooth is stalked by a female assassin looking to avenge all those people Sabretooth has killed.

But hey, what's a few corpses to a guy who can sell books like this? Wolverine guest stars, as if Sabretooth needs the help. No second thoughts here, get it fast.

Uncanny X-Men #303

$1.25 color
By Lobdell, Romita Jr. and Green
Death strikes the X-Men, but more importantly, this issue includes a "Where's Magneto?" game piece. O.K., so it's a "Hunt for Magneto game." But doesn't "Where's Magneto?" have a certain ring to it?

Venom: Funeral Pyre #1 (of 3)

$2.95 color
By Potts, Lyle and Rubinstein
Venom and the Punisher fight a San Francisco street gang and a new villain named Pyre. This book comes with a holo-grafix cover that simulates flames. Wow. And do you think they knew what a funeral pyre was before they started listening to the Doors? Still, this one will be hot, even though that hokey cover leaves me cold.

X-Force #25

$3.50 color
By Nicieza, Capullo and Candelario
Cable returns in this 48-page special issue. Nuff said.

X-Men Survival Guide to the Mansion

$6.95 color
By Lobdell, Bennet, Brown and others
This spiral-bound 48-page "guide" is made to look like the X-Men's actual handbook they use in the field. (1. To load the adamantine claws into a stomach, depress the "lock" button on the back of the hand. 2. Yell. 3. If victim does not yell, repeat.) Even though this has a special gatefold cover, it's not worth the high cover price. The back-issue market will be cruel to this book for a long time. One day it might be like those old Dick Tracy watches. Maybe.

Image Comics

Doom's IV #1

$2.50 color
By Liefeld and Pacella
When a lethal virus transform some corporate guys into superhuman beings, they tackle the nefarious Doom Corp Foundation. Not much information on this one, but hey, it's an Image.

Savage Dragon #1

$1.95 color
By Erik Larsen
Two new superheroes join Savage Dragon in his war on crime in this new series, wherein SD takes to street fighting to get his message across. But in this issue, someone may give him a more powerful message. A popular hero and a popular artist.

Union #1 (of 4)

$1.95 color
By Heisler, Texeira and Lee
Storm Watch guest stars in this miniseries about a strange visitor from another planet with a strong sense of morals. Didn't he just die over in DC? They're not hyping this one too much, so we won't either.

Valiant

Deathmate Prologue

$2.95 color
By Layton, Lee and Liefeld
A meeting between Valiant's Solar and Void—of Image's WildC.A.T.S.—begins to unravel the strands of time and the wallets of young collectors in the first issue of this crossover between the two cutting-edge comic book companies of the 1990s. Anybody could figure out that this will be a winner. If the print run isn't too high, this will likely be a hot commodity for some time.

Secret Weapons #1

By St. Pierre and Wiacek
This new Valiant team-up series pits X-O, Bloodshot, Solar, Gilad the Eternal Warrior and others against Master Darque's champions of evil. Sounds suspiciously like Secret Wars. I thought they booted Shooter out? This one will likely be worth even more gold than the regular Valiant titles, at least current issues.

Solar, Man of the Atom #25

$2.25 color
By VanHook, Grau and Drake
Solar fights Dr. Eclipse. That's about it—but that's enough.

From other publishers

Arcadia — Week One: X

$1.00 color
By Prosser, Warner and Bradstreet
This book kicks off Dark Horse Comics' superhero line at a surprisingly good price.

X is a baddie who is first seen spraying some guy's guts all over a wall. Now the police in Arcadia want him. Probably you'll want the Frank Miller cover. This is a hard call, but it's better to gamble on a nice, cheap book like this one than to miss out, even if it is only 16 pages long.

Arcadia — Week Two: Pit Bulls

$1.00 color
By Prosser, Phillips and Dell
When the government tries to train humans like dogs, they learn that people are a lot more unpredictable — and unstable — than Fido. Another 16-pager.

Arcadia — Week Three: Ghost

$1.00 color
By Prosser, Hughes and Farmer
Ghost is a woman who was brutally murdered and still hasn't gotten over being ticked off about it. X finds out the hard way when he goes after a guy she wants to kill by herself.

Arcadia — Week Four: Monster

$1.00 color
By Prosser, Thompson and Parks
From the sewers beneath the streets of Arcadia comes (that alligator you flushed away when you were five?) Monster, a misunderstood beast that doesn't always mean to kill people.

Universal Monsters: Frankenstein

$3.95 color
Adapted by Denis Beauvais
This is the first in Dark Horse's new line of Universal horror film adaptations. This prestige format book is taken directly from the script of Boris Karloff's original movie version of Mary Shelley's gothic novel. This one probably won't get you the money to buy that Porsche, but it's neat.

Hardcase #1

$1.95 color
By Hudnall and Callahan
This is the first title in Malibu's new Ultraverse line of superheroes and villains (gee, everybody thinks they can make up superheroes). Hardcase once belonged to a super-team, but now they are all dead. Since then he's become an action movie star — a hero in name only. Now he has to regain his confidence to stop a psychopath. This issue features the first appearance of several major Ultraverse characters. The whole series shows promise.

Prime #1

$1.95 color
By Jones, Strazewski and Breyfogle
The second Ultraverse title stars a hero able to fly at supersonic speeds, brush away bullets like flies and punch his way through a battleship. No one knows that he's just a 13-year old boy.

The Strangers #1

$1.95 color
By Englehart and Hoberg
In this new Ultraverse title, a San Francisco trolley is surrounded by a mysterious energy force. All 59 passengers gain some kind of superhuman power. But some die instantly, their bodies unable to take the strain. Others feel unaffected. Some become villains, some heroes. Six of the people team up to find out what caused them to gain these new powers — even if it kills them. This one sounds good.

Shakin' The Bushes

Mourning The Lack of Comics Written For Adults

By Jack Mallette

For several years I have been decrying the fact that the comics industry keeps feeding us what I call the three D's: Demons, Death and Destruction.

Don't get me wrong. I'm as much of an arrested juveniles as the next comics fan, so a certain measure of the three D's is almost required to get the blood pumping in the morning. But enough already! I love vanilla ice cream with chocolate sauce, but if I were required to eat it every day, it would become torture. I need a little buttered almond from time to time.

We hear and read about how comics are no longer for kids, how they've grown up to appeal to a much more adult audience. However, every other month there's another gosh-dang stupendous most incredibly awesome mutoid hero with big parts duking it out with the most incredibly malicious, evil, awesome, blood-sucking slimeball the comics universe has ever seen.

Valiant and Image are the hot tickets right now, but that most certainly will change. Because despite the talent of this new crew, let's face it: once you get past the glitzy covers and the prisms, all we're getting for our $4.95 is just another bozo in spandex.

We have grown up. We read real books with real characters and real plots, and we watch shows like Northern Exposure and Star Trek: The Next Generation not because of Cynthia Geary and Marina Sirtis, but because they are quality shows that are well written.

A real grown up comic book would be something like 'Mazing Man falling in love with Angel Love, drawn by Bill Sienkiewicz. Or Turok and Andar meet Sheena and Shanna.

I haven't been really emotionally affected by a comic book since X-Men #137 (admit it: you had tears welling up in your eyes, too!). I'm ready for another.

Speaking of X-Men, my sleeper pick for the month is just that. This title has been on top for more than 15 years, and has been blessed with the talents of some of the industry's finest writers, artists and editors. X-Men redefined the group concept, and mutants have been the spoon stirring the comics stewpot ever since.

There will be a time when X-Men #1 through #100 in near mint or better condition will command a premium over and above the standard price ratios, whatever they happen to be at the time. This will be followed by #100 through #200, and so on. Watch and see.

This month's Shop Spotlight is Mr. Bill's Comics and Cards in Baton Rouge, La. Owner Bill McKnight and manager Chris Polito are friendly and helpful, and collectors of comics, sportscards and non-sport cards drive from all over southern Louisiana to peruse their fare.

The current leaders of the packs are Valiant, Image and Shaquille O'Neal cards. Shaq went to nearby Louisiana State University, and they are in constant demand. Chris is the one who told me about the McDonald's Shaq card, Orlando version. It made me want to drive all the way down there, just to get the thrill of getting some out of packs!

To get to Mr. Bill's, take the Sherwood Forest exit off I-10 and go south. Drop by and say hello. If you find any interesting Three Stooges items, Chris will probably be interested.

Until next time, be honest.

Be fair.

Beware. Bye.

Quick Cash From Quick Turn Around

By Keith Contarino

One method of making money in the collectible comic market is selling off quickly at low profit and reinvesting. Ideally, you turn a reasonable profit on each item and reinvest elsewhere — hopefully for an even better profit.

This is more difficult than just buying some books, stashing them in a safety deposit box for a few years and reselling for a profit. It requires that you keep up with the different markets and constantly be involved in buying and selling books. Clearly, this isn't for everyone. But for those who practice this type of investing, it is a relatively quick way to make a profit.

This will probably be easiest to illustrate with an example in which an investor begins with $1000. This example will use realistic purchases based on deals I've made or been offered.

Step One: Spending The Capital

The $1000 is spent on eight comic books: Fantastic Four #41 (NM/M) for $40; Avengers #4 (F+) for $360; Submariner #35-36 for $100; Daredevil #7 (F/VF) for $30; Avengers #1 (F/F+) for $350; and two Strange Tales #135 (NM) for $120.

Step Two: Reselling The Books

We sell the Avengers #1 and #4 as a package for $800 immediately; the Fantastic Four #41 for $50; the Daredevil #7 for $40; the two Strange Tales for $130; and the two Submariners for $115. That totals $1135, a profit of 13.5 percent in the one month that elapsed.

Step Three: Reinvesting

From that $1135, we buy a Brave & Bold #34 (F/VF) for $500; an Iron Man #1 (VF-) for $135; and three Golden Age Batmans for $500.

Step Four: Reselling The Reinvestment

We sell the Brave & Bold for $550; the Bats for $600 and the Iron Man for $150 — a total of $1300. This is a profit of 13 percent in the three months elapsed.

Step Five: Reinvesting

We reinvest the $1300 in a Submariner #9 (VF/NM) for $550; a Flash #56 (VF) for $250; and a Amazing Fantasy #15 for $500.

Step Six: Selling Them Off

We wait six months and sell the Subby 9 for $650; the Flash for $350; and the AF for $525. This totals $1525, a profit of 13 percent.

Step Seven: The Final Profit

With the $1525, we buy a Amazing Spider-Man #1 (VG) and sell it six months later for $1700 for an 11 percent profit.

These were all reasonable deals. At no time was a large profit realized on any one deal, but the total profit on the $1000 for 16 months was an astonishing 70 percent. Certainly, we could have taken that same $1,000 and put it in one book and sold it a year later. In fact there was a nice Avengers #1 (VF) for sale last fall for $1000 that probably would bring $1300 or so next fall. That's a good profit for a year — 30 percent.

Of course, the down side of this type of investing is the risk of selling your portfolio too cheaply and not being able to find other suitable investments in a reasonable time. It's far safer to invest in a high grade Avengers #1, but your profits will probably be greater by constantly turning over your inventory.

Golden Age Sleepers

1. More Fun #101 — First appearance and origin of Superboy. Less than one-third the price of a Amazing Spider-Man #1.
2. Mickey Mouse Book, 1930 — The first Mickey, Minnie, Clarabelle Cow. Only Disney book with Mickey's origin, eight years before Action #1. Probably doesn't exist above (F/VF). Very inexpensive.
3. Flash #104 — Very hard to find. Has an origin, and guides about the same as Fantastic Four #2.
4. More Fun #55 — First Dr. Fate. Much harder to find than More Fun #53 at one-third the price.
5. Superboy #1 — A beautiful yellow Superman cover.

Silver Age Sleepers

1. Showcase #9 — The rarest high grade Showcase and one of the rarest in any grade.
2. Showcase #43 — For a mid-1960s book, very hard to find, especially above VF. Cross-over James Bond collectors.
3. Tales to Astonish #1 — Sells for two to three times guide in NM.
4. Wonder Woman #105 — All but nonexistent above F/VF.
5. World's Finest #68-73 — Difficult to find in VF or better.

Culture & Thrills

Trends In Buying And Selling

By David Alexander

Have you noticed how many places are carrying comics lately? The baseball card show promoters are really pushing comics as a big attraction. Most of the card stores that I visit have a comics section, as do several local hobby shops.

One reason for this may be that comics are increasing in value while sportscards are stagnant; for an athlete's sportscard to increase he has to excel in performance, but for a comic to increase, the X-Men only have to meet (and not necessarily defeat) a new villain. When give the chance to choose reality or fantasy, I believe that collectors will grab fantasy first!

The Comics Warehouse

The newest concept in marketing comics is the comics warehouse. This is different from the regional warehouses distributors use to supply local store operations with new products. The concept I am talking about is an open-to-the-public warehouse, generally three or four sizes larger than the average comic shop. These operations have popped up in Florida during the last few months and seem quite popular with collectors. Generally these locations are in commercial (as opposed to retail, areas and are sometimes off the beaten path. They are only opened periodically — usually three or four days a month. This idea has combined the best concepts of a convention and a comic store with a low overhead that can translate to better deals for collectors.

> "Unexpected nostalgia has always sold better than manufactured collectibility and always will."

Market Trends

Collectors constantly ask me what they should collect (in terms of future appreciation). To the 114 people who asked me this question last month, here is my answer.

Buy Rare

Buy any comic printed pre-1938. Don't worry about the condition of these. If it's still in one piece, you're okay. There aren't nearly enough pre-1938 issues left to go around. Don't worry about the price. In a couple of years, you'll look back and wish you had more — lots more. Try this exercise: First, compare the current values of the 100 most expensive Silver Age comics to the 100 most expensive pre-1938 comics. Second, guesstimate how many of each currently exist. When you consider that 85 percent of all Golden Age books are now in the hands of collectors/dealers and only 25 to 30 percent of Silver Age comics have been discovered, you can get a real grasp of the rarity of the pre-1938 comics.

Buy Golden Age

Every day when I wake up I ask myself this question: Should I take $500 and buy a couple of platinum Spider-Man #1s or gold-embossed Image or Valiant books ... or should I spend the money on Golden Age? So far the answer has always been buy the Golden Age. Unexpected nostalgia has always sold better than manufactured collectibility and always will.

So, if you're not into 1930s to 1950s comics, get involved now. These comics are great, and have a yesteryear innocence to them that you don't get in the blood and guts of today.

Some top picks in this area are: Fox Good Girl Art titles. The spearhead book in this group is the Phantom Lady. She also appears in All-Top which along with Jo-Jo Comics have some of the wildest interior art of any comic ... ever.

Fawcett Superheroes

Any Golden Age Captain Marvel is a bargain. Everyone should have at least one sample issue in their collection. Those I've talked into trying the Big Red Cheese and his siblings haven't regretted it. Except that now they have yet another title they are trying to collect.

Fiction House Titles

Planet Comics is the ringleader here Jumbo, with their provocative Sheena covers, are universally popular. Check the pages though, as Fiction House used a low quality paper that tends to get brown and flaky.

Movie & TV Comics

Movie buffs, movie memorabilia enthusiasts, and other people who collect film

sters will often col- t comic books of their vorite stars or movies. many cases they pay bstantially higher an a comic collector. hat in itself should ake these books more sirable. "Movie Com- s" from Fiction House particularly obscure and covers both Move d Fiction House sections.

Funny Comics

These are the real sleepers in the collect- g field. After being generally dormant for cades, funny animal comics have attracted creasing numbers of collectors in the last o years. Any title related to an animated series will change hands quickly (Jetsons, intstones, Space Ghost, Rocky & llwinkle, etc.) Archie comics have a huge lowing. I've always maintained about 3,000 Archies in my inventory and I have trouble filling all the wantlists. It has always amazed me that the majority of stores and convention dealers don't stock Archies. Maybe it's because I have them all, but it's probably just because they don't realize the title's popularity to back-issue collectors. Watch for Disney comics to heat up. They've been dormant since the reprints buried them, but now the emphasis seems to be shifting to original material. Harvey Comics have not received much attention in recent years, but there is no decrease in interest from fans. Richie Rich still does good. What strikes me as amazing is that I have been receiving multiple orders for 1950s Blondie comics. But the quickest and most consistent mover in this genre is Mad. Whether comic or magazine format doesn't seem to matter — they all go to eager collectors.

So, if you're one of the 114 people who wanted to know what you should collect, these areas are a good start. If you are into popular culture, collect Movie House or Fox. If you like innocent nostalgia, try Funny Comics. If you are a jokester, start collecting Mad. If you've got the time and patience to find that truly rare piece of collecting history, go for the pre-1938 issues. Collect what you enjoy and collect whatever brings back memories for you.

SPECIAL REPORT

Comics Market Reports Valiants, Vertigo Heat Up As Summer Approaches

By John Davis

As the comics market heads toward the crucial summer months, the weather isn't the only thing heating up. Valiant and Image sales are steadily increasing, and hope for their staying power is on everyone's lips. But DC and Marvel are putting up quite a fight for your dollars and attention, with several hot titles. As the number of releases and promotions increase, it looks like this summer will be a hot one.

Current Releases and Recent Back Issues

The large number of recent releases makes forecasting and ordering a challenge for retailers, but has added an element to the market already energized by up-and-comers Image and Valiant.

"The Death miniseries and Sandman are our best sellers for females. Vertigo has done a lot for getting new customers. Hopefully, we'll be able to hang on to some of them."
— Robert Moyer
New Dimensions Comics

Many dealers reported difficulty in keeping up with all of the titles being released, especially Marvel titles. So they are putting their hope in Marvel's marketing promotions to gather interest for the titles as more issues are on the shelf at one time. "The covers are what's selling them now," said Steve Stark, owner of L&S Comix in North Merrick, N.Y.

Marvel

Perhaps the biggest surprise of the season been Ren & Stimpy — the comic book versi the popular Nickelodeon animated series. No expected it to take off like it did, but there it anyway. With issue # 7 already in stores, de are struggling to meet the demand for early is particularly #2, which was not widely distribu At Golden Apple in Los Angeles, Ren & Stimp is selling for $25, reported back issues man Mike Johnson. At Flying Colors Comics and C Cool Stuff in Concord, Calif., owner Joe Fie selling that issue for $15.

Marvel's Venom, Uncanny X-Men and oth Men titles remain good sellers in current is especially X-Men #19 and #20.

Across the board, Venom has been a solid cess, retailers said. Tim Riley, of Wall to Comics in Torrance, Calif., said issue # 4 particularly hot.

And Spider-Man titles have been extre popular for quite a while, Riley said. Spectac Spider-Man, Web of Spider-Man and Spider- Unlimited were outselling other Marvel title said.

At Heroes & Fantasies in San Antonio, c of Venom #1 (Gold) have been selling for $95. first three issues of Ren & Stimpy sell for $20, president Rich Conley.

Recent back issues of X-Men and Spider- titles, on the other hand, are selling for at leas to 50¢ above cover price. At Comstar 1 in Cli

N.J., owner Howard Beck has been selling recent back issues of Spider-Man titles for as high as $2. Golden Apple reported selling X-Men #5 for $6. Flying Colors and Other Cool Stuff is selling X-Men #5-9 for $6. Avengers Annual #10 — featuring the first appearance of Rogue — was selling for $20 at L&S Comix in North Merrick, N.Y.

DC

Dealers reported that all of DC's Batman and Superman titles remain on the best-selling lists for current issues, although the demand for Superman titles has fallen slightly since his much-expected resurrection made the demand decline a bit. Knightfall and other Batman titles are doing well at Funny Business in New York City, said owner Roger Smyth. Batman: Sword of Azrael has done especially well lately, retailers said. And Sandman remains very popular with reader/savers and collectors.

Batman titles including Sword of Azrael are doing great. Batman #488 and #489 are selling for $15 at Golden Apple in Los Angeles. Batman #492 was under-ordered in several stores, which may result in higher prices in the back issues market in the coming months.

Sam Pistachio, assistant manager at New Dimension Comics in Evans City, Penn., said he thinks Knightfall was severely under-ordered by retailers and predicts some may spend some time catching up with demand. This may cause an increase in value.

DC's Vertigo line is doing very well. Vertigo is keeping adult, non-cult interest readers in comic book stores, retailers said. Death, it appears, is good for business. Chris Simonds, manager of Archives Comics and Books in Norman, Okla., said Vertigo titles were among the best selling DC titles, even outselling Superman titles.

Kelli Stanley, manager of Funny Papers in San Francisco, and Conley at Heroes & Fantasies also reported Vertigo was selling very well.

Rick Sambucini of Collector's Asylum in San Antonio, Texas said most Vertigo titles were underordered, especially issue #2 in the Death miniseries and many titles in the murder series.

Vertigo buyers seem to be older and are more likely to be female. Dealers reported that Vertigo buyers are likely 20- to 25-year old women who haven't been seen in the store before, said Robert Moyer, manager of New Dimensions Comics.

"The Death miniseries and Sandman are our best sellers for females," he said. "Vertigo has done a lot for getting new customers. Hopefully, we'll be able to hang on to some of them."

Dealers also reported that DC's Vertigo back issues are moving out the door, as collectors work toward the beginning of the series. Sandman is selling well above guide at Collector's Asylum in San Antonio, Texas, and at Casablanca Comics in Windham, Maine. Also popular are the Sandman spin-off miniseries Death and Sandman Mystery Theatre.

The death of Superman is still alive and well in the recent back issues market; the Funeral for a Friend series is consistently selling for cover price or a little better. Conrad Eschenberg of Dimension Comics in Cold Springs, N.Y., reported that non-Doomsday issues are also selling well. According to Diamond Distributors, Inc., Superman titles made up half of the top 10 orders for April.

Image

Retailers report that almost anything from Image is selling well. At Stalking Moon Bookstore, all new Image issues were doing well except 1963, said David Laskowski, manager for the Glendale, Ariz., store. However, the decline in demand for Youngblood and the performance of Splitting Image also disappointed many dealers.

But Spawn and other titles did well enough to keep Image new releases going strong. "I don't think it's just speculators making Image so hot," said Moyer at New Dimension Comics in Evans City, Penn. "The art is very good. I think they should start to get better writing, but the consensus seems to be that Image is the one to get."

"Image's back issues are on fire." — Conrad Eschenberg Dimension Comics

As in the current release market, Spawn is where it's at for recent back issues. "Spawn is king," one retailer said. The first issue was selling for between $5 (Evans City, Penn.) and $10 (Glendale, Ariz.) Prices usually didn't exceed that. Plus, nearly all stores reported that any Spawn issue is easy to sell. Prices for Spawn $4 fall between $9 and $15, although Mike Johnson, back issue manager for Golden Apple in Los Angeles, says he can barely keep them in the store: "I have to reorder every other week." Spawn #7 and #8 did especially well for Collector's Asylum in San Antonio, Texas, Sambucini said.

Other recent Image back issues are almost as hot. Shadowhawk back issues in high grades sell for $15 at Casablan-ca Comics in Windham, Maine. "Image's back issues are on fire," said Eschenberg at Dimension Comics. And in a few months, he said, Image will have established itself as a major player.

Valiant

Valiant's back issues are still extremely hot almost everywhere. Magnus #12 has served everyone well, when available, retailers said. At Casablanca Comics in Windham, Maine, Magnus #12 is selling for $60. But Johnson at Golden Apple said he'd be able to sell it for $100 if he could just get it into the store. Magnus #14 averages about $20, with Rai #3 and #4 at about $85.

And sales of H.A.R.D. Corps remains strong, retailers said. Field, at Flying Colors Comics And Other Cool Stuff said issue #1 was selling for $6. Pre-Unity issues are still popular but may be slowing down as buyers get what they want and as sellers unload. Harbinger #1 is selling for $60 at New Dimension Comics, but elsewhere prices varied by about $15 above and below that.

Despite some fear of a slump, best sellers include Bloodshot, Magnus and Rai, retailers reported. Valiant's most recent issue of H.A.R.D Corps has also done well, retailers said.

"We are getting really excited about Protectors. It also looks good for spinoffs."
— Kelli Stanley
Funny Papers

But in North Merrick, N.Y., L&S Comix sometimes sells Valiants at 10 percent or more above the guide prices — with Harbinger #0 selling for $180.

Nearly all dealers agree that sales of Valiants have been largely fueled by speculation. This speculation has particularly influenced the buying patterns of young readers. Beck of Comstar 1 said kids ask him all the time what books are hot. "I'll say 'Well, look at this Solar #10,' " Beck said. "They look at it and say, 'No, that's stupid.' Then later, when they read somewhere that Solar #10 is it, they come back and say, 'Hey, where's that cool Solar?' "

"I thought you said that was stupid," Beck then says. "Well, now it's cool," they respond, paying $2 for it — four times more than the price it was when it was originally offered to them.

Whether or not Valiants can survive this speculation and increase in demand is something nearly every retailer has an opinion on.

Many dealers believe that a buy-and-dump campaign is in the works which will eventually cause Valiants to go down - way down. Pistachio at New Dimension Comics in Evans City, Pennsylvania said he was already seeing some collections of Valiants come back in. Eschenberg at Dimension Comics is predicting that Valiant prices will "collapse." "By August, it's going to be real slow," he said. "This just can't last."

Roger Smyth of New York City's Funny Business however is certain of Valiant's viability: "Valiant will stay."

Nearly all retailers expressed optimism that Turok #1 — which started strong with numerous requests from customers before release — to perform well. The title, reintroducing the dinosaur hunter, features a hybrid foil cover.

Other Independents

Among the independent publishers, nothing compares to Image or Valiant, but there are many independent lines and titles that are earning their place on current release shelves. "Dark Horse is definitely a strong third," said Moyer at New Dimensions Comics.

Dark Horse was selling well at Planet X Comics in Seattle, Wash., said John Evans, store owner. Moyer cited Grendel: War Child as selling particularly well.

Some stores reported that Protectors, Beauty and the Beast (TV adaptation), Ultraman, Anne Rice and Disney adaptations were also doing well. "We are getting really excited about Protectors," said Stanley at Funny Papers. "It also looks good for spinoffs." Another independent succeeding in gaining ground is Cry for Dawn.

Speculation

Dealers all over the country reported an increase in speculators influencing the prices in recent back issues. "All of the sudden everyone wanted Superman #66. It was like a panic," said Stanley at Funny Papers.

Most retailers expressed fears about recent artificial inflation and deflation of comic book prices. This speculation seems to have particularly affected Valiant titles. "Turok is going to be very big," said Simonds at Archives Comics and Books. "And when it comes out everyone's going to buy scads of multiple copies. Later, these people are going to dump them, there'll be plenty for everyone and the price will go way down."

Rick Lowell, manager of Casablanca Comics in Windham, Maine, said he was seeing a lot of speculation based on rumors on computer bulletin board systems. Batman: Sword of Azrael series and the rumor concerning Batman's death was a good example of that.

On a similar note, some retailers have noticed the considerable influence of sports card shops on the market. At Collector's Asylum, buyers suddenly stopped coming for a certain book, said Sambucini, the owner. It turned out that a sports card shops had the book, and buyers had found them more close to home. "I think they're pulling away a lot of customers from comic book dealers," he said.

1970s BOOKS

"More and more, people are considering 1970s books as Silver Age," said Stanley at Funny Papers. "I think that demonstrates how much harder they are to come by."

Much of the action here is in looking for reintroductions, said Eschenberg at Dimension Comics. "The tip off is when someone buys duplicates," he said. "When somebody does that, I always ask why."

He compared the supply and demand forces now shaping the 1970s market with what factors usually expected in the 1960s market. "This is becoming the second '60s," he said.

"Comics seem to go in 20-year cycles, so people are looking back at 1973-1975," said Field at Flying Colors Comics and Other Cool Stuff. "You can pretty well see what's going to come back."

Buyers interested in word that there will be a movie based on Sgt. Rock are buying fine or better grades of DC's Sgt. Rock at $3, said Moyer at New Dimensions Comics.

The old 25¢ horror titles look good to buyers, a few retailers said. But standard titles with Spider-Man and Wolverine are among the best-sellers for Marvel, with few exceptions.

"Comics seem to go in 20-year cycles, so people are looking back at 1973-1975."
— Joe Field
Flying Colors Comics & Other Cool Stuff

Field, of Flying Colors Comics And Other Cool Stuff, reported that he is selling a VF Marvel Spotlight #12 for $14. Son of Satan #1 (NM) is selling for $7.50 and issues # 2 through #8 are selling for $4 at NM.

In Huntsville, Ala., 1970s books are heating up as capital-hungry current releases and back issues cool off in hard times, said Bill Cooper, owner of The Comic Shop. "Whenever they come in, out they go."

Some retailers reported increased sales on books that cost $1 to $2. With the cover prices as high as they are with recent releases, perhaps it's fun to get a good book from the 1970s with a good story and art to enjoy — not to mention a reliable investment opportunity.

Affordable Star Wars books from Marvel are so high in quality, customers are paying about $1 over guide prices, said Lowell at Casablanca Comics. "They're 15 years old and they have great characters," he said. "It's just a good buy."

Other retailers have also noticed this trend. "There are a lot of Star Wars people out there," said Dan Gallo at Frontline Collectibles in Hastings-on-Hudson, N.Y. "A lot of 18- to 30-year-olds grew up with Star Wars, and I think this will be an area where we will see some interest."

Other recent prices realized for 1970s books include: Swamp Thing #1 (NM) $38; Ghost Rider #1 (NM) $125; Doctor Strange #1 (NM/M) $30; X-Men #94 (VF) $150.

SILVER AND GOLDEN AGE

Interest in Silver and Golden Age is picking up, but supply is definitely dropping. In the Golden Age, superhero books in DC, Marvel, Quality and Fawcett are highly desirable. But they sell as quickly as they come in.

Collectors are becoming increasingly particular about condition, said Simonds of Archives Comics and Books in Norman, Okla. "Especially with the Amazing Spider-Man, people are picky. They're using a magnifying glass."

However, New Dimension Comics managed to sell five low-grade copies of Silver Surfer #1, for between $45 and $85 each.

In Silver Age, appearances of popular characters are selling because buyers think the character will be reintroduced, often due to rumors. The reintroduction of a character means that demand for original books featuring that character will increase, as was the case when Valiant reintroduced several Gold Key characters.

Key books, including first issues and first appearances are getting lots of action. Even Gold Keys in low-grade were doing well at Comic Cavalcade in Champaign, Ill., said assistant manager Mark Seifert.

> "A lot of 18- to 30-year-olds grew up with Star Wars, and I think this will be an area where we will see some interest."
> — Dan Gallo
> Frontline Collectibles

Marvel books were also selling well. At New Dimension Comics in Evans City, Penn., a high-grade Journey into Mystery #23 recently sold for $300. Fantastic Four #48 and #49 (fine) sold for $200. Eschenberg at Dimension Comics in Cold Springs, N.Y., sees pre-hero books from 1958 to 1963 as undervalued. "These are doing well," he said. And they're interesting to study, too, he said. In these books, characters had features that would later appear in popular heroes. "There are over 30 prototypes for things yet to come in those books."

Lately, the Funny Papers staff in San Francis has tried to stress Silver and Golden Age books customers, Stanley said. In part, that's becau getting into the recent releases is so unpredictabl she said.

But these books are being pushed out of th realm of normal collections as these books becom harder to find, many dealers said. Prices continue escalate on very high grade or very low grade copie while mid-grade copies remain slower sellers.

The current release and recent back issue ma kets are heating up, but not just because the critic summer season is approaching. Upstarts Image ar Valiant are on the scene with all the gusto ar surprises of new characters from an alternate un verse.

Led by Spawn and Magnus, Image and Valia have crashed through the door, landed onto th newsstand shelf and threatened the super-publish ers with much more.

And it's safe to say the major publishers wi respond with the most dependable weapons fro their handy utility-belts: annuals, miniseries, cros overs, foil covers and other specials.

Kinda makes you want to peek ahead to the ne panel to see who delivers the next blow, huh?

Spawn is on everyone's hit list.

MAIL ORDER TIPS

Here are a few tips that will make your dealings through the mail easy and hassle free.

Mail order is an excellent way to buy and sell comic books, because it gives you instant access to more buyers, sellers and merchandise than can be found in a geographic market. But, as in any business, it's smart to take precautions.

Tips For Buying Comics Mail Order

1. Avoid ads with no phone numbers unless you know the person placing the ad. Avoid ads with just post office boxes. If there is a phone number to call, do so and insist on a street address.
2. Purchase small items first, if possible. If you are pleased with the service you receive, you'll probably feel more secure ordering more expensive items later.
3. Ask the seller for references, and check them.
4. If he or she has no references, ask if they would submit the book to a third party. For any purchase over $500, Insist on either seeing the book yourself or having it looked at by a respected professional. The buyer should be willing to pay for all costs. This can be done through Comic Grading Service of America. You can reach them by calling (310)836-PCEI. Also, many dealers will act as a third party for their good clients, often at no charge.
5. Ask to see the book on approval. If you have been in this hobby very long and have a few very good references, most sellers will allow you to view a book before purchasing it.
6. Call the publication the ad was placed in and inquire as to any complaints levied against the persons placing the ad. Comics Source blacklists any advertiser who receives three unresolved complaints.

Tips For Selling Comics Mail Order

1. Regardless of your mail carrier, always insure your package and make certain the buyer has to sign for it. Send all books AOD or return receipt requested. Federal Express makes someone sign for any package.
2. Inform the buyer when you will ship the order, and then follow up on it.
3. Include your name and address on both the outside and inside of your package.
4. Don't spend the money until the buyer's return privilege expires.
5. Pack all books carefully. Don't cram them into a package; they will be damaged.
6. Treat all your clients the same as you'd like to be treated.
7. All Comics Source advertisers must accept returns for any reason if the book(s) is sent back in the same condition received and postmarked within six days of receipt. Send refunds promptly. If books you sent were damaged by the mail carrier, refund the buyer's money immediately and then file your claim. You have an agreement or contract with the buyer.

HOW TO ORDER

All comics in the Comics Price Index are for sale. A "Seller ID" code can be found at the end of each listing that indicates who the seller is. To simplify placing orders, we recommend these steps:

1. Make a list of all books you want to buy, arrange it by "Seller ID," then title, issue #, item #, grade, and price.
2. Use the "Seller's Directory - Who To Contact" (next page) to locate the address and telephone number of each seller on your list.
3. Phone your order in with credit card information, or mail the order form provided on page 41 to the seller with payment, including appropriate shipping charges. Use a different order form for each seller. Mail your order to the seller, not to Comics Source.
4. If you place a hold on any books, be sure to promptly send payment directly to the seller. If you don't send payment within 7 days, you lose the book.
7. If you ever have an unresolved problem with any of your orders please contact the publishers of this magazine.

If you have books you would like to sell read the "Seller Listing Form" on page 106.

STANDARD MAIL-ORDER TERMS

These terms apply to all sellers unless otherwise indicated, contact individual sellers for additional terms such as discounts, credit card availability, or special terms.

PAYMENT: Must accompany order unless prior arrangements are made. Personal checks must clear.

SHIPPING CHARGE: USPS or UPS ground is $5 within continental U.S. for most orders, extra charge for Canada & Overseas or overweight. Fed EX, Blue Label, etc. is available for an extra charge.

PLACE YOUR ORDER: By mail or phone. All orders shipped within 2 working days. Phone orders must either be paid by credit card or placed on hold for 7 days. If not paid within 7 days items are placed back in stock. Mail orders should list alternate choices when possible, but alternates are used only in the event your first choice is sold.

PHOTOS: Most sellers can provide a photo or photocopy but usually request a $1.00 fee to cover the time and expense.

GRADING: Standard grading terms apply. Consult "Making The Grade" elsewhere in this issue for details about the different grades/conditions of comic books.

DISCOUNTS: Most sellers offer a 10 percent courtesy discount to bona-fide retailers. This is optional. Most ask to see a letterhead, copy of business license or resale # to qualify. Inquire.

SATISFACTION GUARANTEED! Return any item within 6 days for a prompt refund.

WE'VE LOWERED THE LISTING PRICES!

Beginning with our June issue, all Comics Source listings will be just $1 per comic! We've also changed the format a little. Here's how it will work:

COMICS FOR SALE LISTINGS

All Comics For Sale listings will be just $1 per comic. The listings will expire after one month, so in the unlikely event that a comic you listed in Comics Source doesn't sell, you'll want to place an order to have the listing put back in the next month.

COMICS WANTED LISTINGS

All Comics Wanted listings will be just $1 per comic.
The listings will expire after one month.

SEND IN YOUR LISTINGS TODAY!

Send in your Comics For Sale listings using the listing form on page 106. For Comics Wanted, the listing forms can be found on page 102. Mail or fax them today!

DEADLINES

Deadlines are always the first day of the month for the following month's issue.
The deadline for the June issue is May 1.
The deadline for the July issue is June 1.
The deadline for the August issue is July 1.
And so on. (You get the picture).

HOW TO QUOTE

The Comics Buyers Index contains listings of books that collectors are wanting to buy. There is a "Buyer ID" code at the end of each listing that tells you who the buyer is. To simplify the job of offering your books to each buyer, we recommend these steps:

1. Make a list of all books you have that are wanted. Arrange the list by title, issue #, grade, and price. Put the "Buyer ID" code next to each of your books.
2. Use the "BUYERS DIRECTORY - Who To Contact" (starting on the next page) to locate the address and telephone number of each buyer on your list.
3. If you like, call each buyer to verify that the books are still needed.
4. If the buyer asks for a photo or Xerox copy, be sure to send it as quickly as possible.
5. Read the "Standard Quoting Rules" and abide by them.
6. Send a letter to the seller with your name, address, and telephone number , and a complete description of each book you have on his wantlist, listing the price you are asking. If possible, send a photocopy of the front and back cover of the book (this helps assure the buyer of the grade and improves your response). Keep a copy of your letter for your records. Include a self-addressed stamped envelope for the buyer to send his reply.
7. Hold the book aside for 7 days. If you don't hear from the buyer within 7 days return the book to your inventory.

If there are books you can't find in your area, use Comics Source to "go national."
Use the "Buyer Listing Form" on page 102.

STANDARD QUOTING RULES

These rules are modelled after the "Antiquarian Bookman" format. Quoting is the preferred way of doing business in the rare book trade. They have perfected the art of quoting. Here are standard rules they use:

PAYMENT: Buyer sends payment first.

SHIPMENT: Seller is expected to ship the order within two working days.

SHIPPING CHARGE: Buyer must add sufficient shipping cost to cover shipping and insurance. If the buyer opts to have the order shipped without insurance and the order is lost, the buyer suffers the loss. Always insure!

PHOTOS: Most quoters send a photo or Xerox copy as verification of ownership and to illustrate condition.

GRADING: Standard grading terms apply. Consult "Making The Grade" elsewhere in this issue for more details about the different grades/conditions of comic books.

SATISFACTION GUARANTEED! If the buyer is unhappy with any book for any reason he may return it (in the same condition as sent) within 6 days for a refund. Sellers should allow the appropriate time to pass before spending the funds.

BUYERS LISTING FORM

How To List Your Buyers Ads in Comics Source

1. Complete the PERSONAL INFORMATION FORM on page 108 and read the Standard Listing Terms. Be aware that you are expected to abide by the terms as stated.
2. Fill out the listing form:
   TITLE: Use the EXACT title found on the indicia (small print lower first page). If the title was used by different companies or series (ex: Marvel Tales) indicate the publisher/date.
   ISSUE #: The issue number of the book. Example: X-Men #s 1-10 counts as 10 listings for a total of $10. In our format, each book is listed individually.
   MINIMUM GRADE: Indicate the lowest grade that you will accept. Refer to "Making The Grade" at the back of the magazine for correct abbreviations.
   PRICE (OPTIONAL): The exact price you are willing to pay for the book. Don't put "50% guide" or some similar range. Be realistic; don't offer $50 for a $500 book — you'd just be wasting your listing money. You are not required to state a price you will pay, but we recommend that you do. You will get better responses.
   OFFICE USE: Leave this area blank.
3. MAIL, PHONE, or FAX your listings to us. We must receive your forms by the deadline (the first day of the month) for them to appear in the next issue.
4. Include payment (we accept Mastercard, Visa or check). Listing fee is $1 per book.
   We will include your listings in the next available issue. We mail monthly inventory reports which you should update and return to us.

How To Respond To Quotes

1. Get a supply of pre-stamped postcards from the post office.
2. Reply to everyone who sends you a quote. If someone takes the time to write, then they deserve a reply.
3. Allow enough time for all quotes to come in. This way you can compare prices and grades before you make a buying decision.
4. When you decide to purchase a book, take some precautions if you have never dealt with the person before:
   • Talk on the phone. Get the person's name, address, and telephone number. Is the person a store owner/dealer, or a private individual? Ask for references.
   • Get a complete description. Ask to see a photocopy if the book is very expensive. Ask about a return privilege if you are unhappy with the book. If you plan to spend a large sum of money, the seller should be willing to help you in every way possible.
5. Finally, send your payment promptly. If you agree on a price, then follow through without delay.

Standard Listing Terms

We publish the following standard listing rules and ask that all buyers abide by them.

LIST ONLY WHAT YOU WILL BUY! Don't list wants that you have no intention of buying. If you offer to buy it, be prepared to back it up.

ANSWER EVERY QUOTE. If someone takes the time to offer you a book on your wantlist, you owe them the courtesy of a reply, even if you have already acquired the book.

SEND PAYMENTS PROMPTLY. If you agree to buy a book from someone, don't delay sending the payment. Most sellers will only hold a book for 10 days at most.

SELLERS LISTING FORMS

How To Sell Comics In Comics Source

1. Complete the PERSONAL INFORMATION FORM on page at right and READ the Standard Mail-Order Terms. Be aware that you are expected to abide by the terms as stated. Your terms can be more liberal (i.e. free shipping) if you wish. However, our published standard terms are the minimum.
2. GRADE your comics strictly and accurately.
3. Fill out the listing form. Make photocopies if additional forms are needed.
   TITLE: Use the EXACT title found on the indicia (small print lower first page). If the title was used by different companies or series (ex: Marvel Tales) indicate the publisher/date.
   ISSUE #: The issue number of the book.
   GRADE: Refer to "Making The Grade" at the back of the magazine for correct abbreviations.
   NOTES: Details about the book that help clarify the condition, or special notes about first appearances, etc. Please keep these notes as brief as possible. Notes must fit in the space provided.
   PRICE: The price you are asking for the book.
   OFFICE USE: Leave this area blank.
4. MAIL, PHONE, or FAX your listings to us. We must receive your forms by the deadline (first of the month) for them to appear in the next issue.
5. Include payment (we accept Mastercard, Visa or check). Listing fee is $1.00 per listing.
   We will include your listings in the next available issue We mail monthly inventory reports which you should update and return to us. We offer discounted contract rates. Inquire.

How To Respond to Mail Orders

1. Buy a supply of padded mailers, mailing labels, and shipping tape. These are available at your local office supply store. Also get a supply of corrugated box cardboard. Cut the cardboard into comic-sized squares and sandwich the books between them. Package with extreme care to avoid any damage in shipment.
2. Always ship orders within two days.
3. If an item is already sold, send a refund check, not a credit form.
4. Always insure each order. UPS includes $100 insurance on every package at no charge, USPS does not.
5. Treat your buyers well, and they will buy again and again.

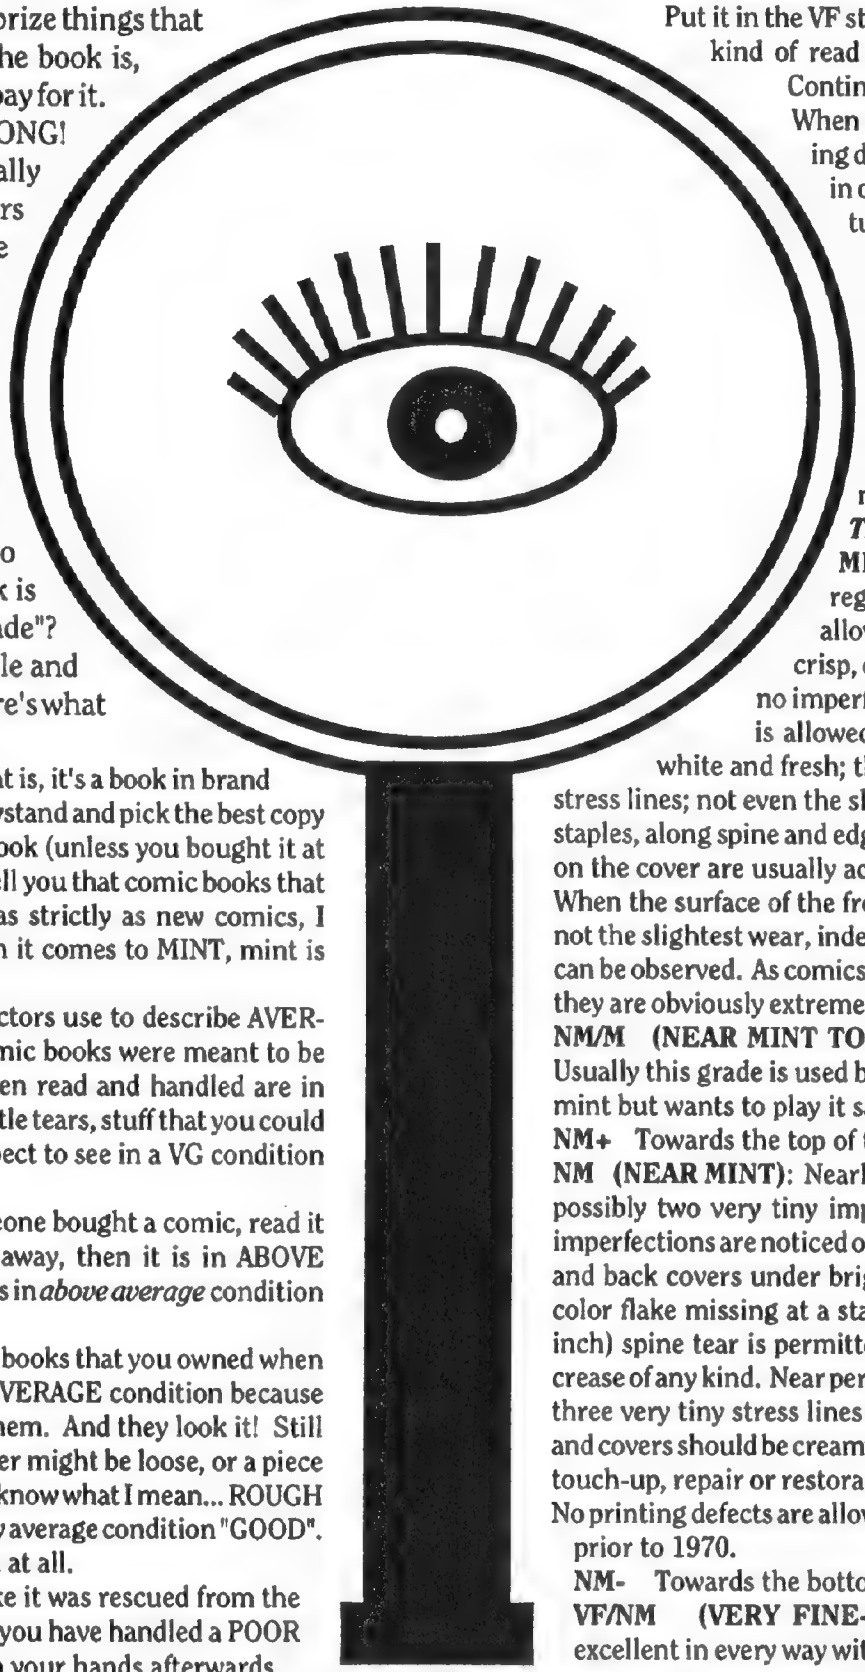
MAKING THE GRADE

By Jon R. Warren

Comic books, like movie posters, coins, stamps, sports cards, and everything else that people collect, are graded according to condition. Because human beings prize things that glitter, the more like brand new the book is, the higher the price collectors will pay for it. Seems simple enough, right? WRONG! Because talking about condition really means talking about money, buyers and sellers often have a hard time agreeing on the grade of a book. But, luckily, there are standard terms that everyone does agree on (what those terms mean is another story). Unluckily, it takes years of looking at thousands of variances of grade before you can really be a knowledgeable grader. So how do you know what grade a comic book is in if you are new at "making the grade"? Let me suggest that you start simple and then focus in on the final grade. Here's what I mean:



MINT: We all know what that is, it's a book in brand new condition. When you go to the newstand and pick the best copy you can find, that's probably a MINT book (unless you bought it at K-Mart). Although some dealers will tell you that comic books that are 30 or 40 years old aren't graded as strictly as new comics, I wouldn't buy that if I were you. When it comes to MINT, mint is mint. Period.

AVERAGE: The term collectors use to describe AVERAGE is VG, or VERY GOOD. Since comic books were meant to be read and handled, books that have been read and handled are in average condition. Creased corners, little tears, stuff that you could expect from normal use is what we expect to see in a VG condition book.

ABOVE AVERAGE: If someone bought a comic, read it once or twice, then carefully filed it away, then it is in ABOVE AVERAGE condition. We refer to comics in above average condition as VF or VERY FINE.

BELOW AVERAGE: Comic books that you owned when you were six years old are in BELOW AVERAGE condition because you probably beat the @@#$!! out of them. And they look it! Still complete with all its pages, but the cover might be loose, or a piece might be missing from the corner. You know what I mean... ROUGH ROUGH! Collectors call comics in below average condition "GOOD". Actually, there's nothing good about it at all.

POOR: A book that looks like it was rescued from the trash is in POOR condition. You know you have handled a POOR condition book when you rush to wash your hands afterwards.

Now that you know the 5 basic ranges of condition a book can be in, it is a much easier task to focus in on exactly what the real grade is. Try it yourself. Take a stack of your books and grade them. Is the first one in the stack just like the day you bought it except for a tiny bend on the corner? Then it's not MINT, but you could certainly say it is ABOVE AVERAGE. Put it in the VF stack. Does the next one in the stack look kind of read and re-read? Put it in the VG stack. Continue sorting the books by basic grades. When you are done, refer to the detailed grading descriptions shown below. You can focus in on the actual grade by reading these fine-tuning grading descriptions. The one that sounds the closest to the grade of your book is the actual grade.

Here are the terms that we comic book afficionados use to describe condition. Throughout the pages of Comics Source you will see these codes used to indicate grade. Memorize them, learn what they mean, and then you can start "Making The Grade".

MINT: Absolutely perfect in every way, regardless of age. No printing defects are allowed. The cover has full original gloss, is crisp, cut square with sharp corners and shows no imperfections of any sort. Minute color fading is allowed. The cover and all pages are creamy white and fresh; the spine is tight, flat, and clean with no stress lines; not even the slightest blemish can be detected around staples, along spine and edges or at corners. Arrival dates pencilled on the cover are usually acceptable so long as they are very small. When the surface of the front and back covers is held to the light, not the slightest wear, indentations, wrinkles or defects of any kind can be observed. As comics must be truly perfect to be in this grade, they are obviously extremely scarce and seldom are offered for sale.

NM/M (NEAR MINT TO MINT): A grade used to give a range. Usually this grade is used by someone who feels the book might be mint but wants to play it safe.

NM+ Towards the top of the NM category.

NM (NEAR MINT): Nearly perfect. Upon close inspection, one or possibly two very tiny imperfections can be found. Often these imperfections are noticed only when holding the surface of the front and back covers under bright light. Possibly a tiny (1/16th inch) color flake missing at a staple, corner or edge. Or, a tiny (1/16th inch) spine tear is permitted if no other defects are observed. No crease of any kind. Near perfect cover gloss retained. Not more than three very tiny stress lines along the spine may be present. Pages and covers should be creamy to white, not yellow or brown. No color touch-up, repair or restoration of any kind is allowed in this grade. No printing defects are allowed. This grade is also very rare in books prior to 1970.

NM- Towards the bottom of the NM category.

VF/NM (VERY FINE-NEAR MINT): Beautiful, glossy and excellent in every way with only minor imperfections that keep it out of the higher grades. One tiny corner crease of less than 1/8th inch length is allowed. Up to 6 tiny (1/16th inch) stress lines along the spine are acceptable if the eye appeal of the book is not seriously affected.

MAKING THE GRADE

Pages should be creamy at least. A common defect in this grade is a tiny spine tear at the upper or lower spine not greater than 1/16th inch in length. One or no more than two tiny tears (1/16th inch) are permitted in this grade. An extremely tiny tear repair, microscopic dot color touch-up, unobtrusive arrival date erasure or other similar invisible alteration, on an otherwise perfect copy, is permitted in this grade.

VF+ Towards the top of the VF category.

VF (VERY FINE): Above Average. An excellent copy with outstanding eye-appeal. Sharp, bright, clean and glossy with supple pages. Slight wear beginning to show; possibly 5 or 6 tiny wrinkles or stress lines at staples or along spine where cover has been opened a few times; still clean and flat with 80 per cent of cover gloss retained. Pages and covers can be slightly yellowish/tannish but not brown and will usually be creamy to white. 4 or 5 tiny color flakes are acceptable. One 1/4 inch corner crease on an otherwise exceptional copy is permitted. Very minor restoration or repair is not allowed in this grade unless it is specifically noted and described.

VF- Towards the bottom of the VF category.

FVF (FINE-VERY FINE): Nearly Very Fine. A sharp, clean copy but without the crispness associated with Very Fine. Pages can be slightly tannish but not brown or brittle. Up to 8 tiny stress lines along the spine or covers can be expected. Several tiny color flakes are permitted. No subscription creases or spine roll allowed. A minor printing defect is allowed. Corners may be very slightly rounded. Exceptional cover gloss remains (60 per cent or more).

F+ Towards the top of the FINE category.

FINE: A slightly better-than-average copy that shows minor wear, but still relatively flat, clean and glossy with no subscription crease, writing on cover (except an arrival date), brown margins or tape repairs. Typical defects include: Light spine wear, minor surface wear, a light crease (1/4 inch in length), minor yellowing/tanning to interior pages. Still a bright copy with 50 per cent cover gloss. A few stress lines around staples and along spine to be expected, but not more than 1/8th inch in length. One small edge chip or several tiny chips are allowed. One minor tear is allowed when on an otherwise FVF copy. Very minor spine roll allowed on an otherwise clean and uncreased copy.

F- Towards the bottom of the FINE category.

VG/F (VERY GOOD-FINE): Better than a VG+, approaching FINE but not quite sharp enough to merit the higher grade. Oftentimes, a FINE with a minor defect is lowered to VG/F.

VG+ Towards the top of the VG category.

VG (VERY GOOD): The average used comic book. Significant wear is obvious with original printing lustre and gloss almost gone; some discoloration or fading, but not soiled. One or two minor markings on covers is permitted as is a minor spine roll. Lightly creased along spine or extremities; a subscription crease is allowed. Cover could have a minor tear or crease where a corner was folded under or a loose centerfold. A minor chip or piece missing is allowed when noted. No chunks missing. Pages and inside covers may be brown but not brittle, but would usually be yellowish to creamy. One small tape repair permitted. Still enough eye-appeal to be collectable.

VG- Towards the bottom of the VG category.

G/VG (GOOD-VERY GOOD): Better than G+, almost VG but not quite.

G+ Towards the top of the G category.

G (GOOD): Below average. A heavily worn copy but complete. Creased, scuffed, not glossy and soiled. Although a copy in this grade could have white pages and covers, the accumulation of defects such as creases, tears or chips and general wear prevent the book from a higher classification.

G- Towards the bottom of the G category.

FR/G: Borderline GOOD, with perhaps just a bit too much wear to be a solid GOOD.

FR+: Same as FR/G.

FAIR : Very heavily read and soiled, but still complete. Damaged beyond collectibility for most collectors, bringing 30-50 per cent of the Good price.

P (POOR): Damaged; heavily weathered; soiled; or otherwise unsuited for collection purposes. Possibly incomplete or coverless; pages may be missing, bringing 15 to 25 per cent of the Good price.

COVERLESS (C): Coverless comics are usually hard to sell and in most cases are worthless.

OTHER TERMINOLOGY

Many of the following terms and abbreviations are used in the comic book market and are explained here:

Annual-A book that is published yearly.

Arrival date-Markings on a comic book cover (usually in pen or pencil) made by either the newstand dealer or the distributor. These markings denote the date the book was placed on the newstand. Usually the arrival date is one or two months prior to the cover date.

Brittleness-The final stage of paper deterioration.

Bronze Age-Comic books published after 1969.

cov-Cover art;

Cameo-When a character appears briefly in one or two panels.

Centerfold-The two folded pages in the center of a comic at the terminal end of the staples.

FF - Fantastic Four

First app.-The first time that a character appears anywhere.

G. A.-Golden Age.

Golden Age (G. A.)-The period beginning with Action #1 (June, 1938) and ending with World War II in 1945.

Intro-Same as first appearance.

JLA-Justice League of America.

JLI-Justice League International.

JSA-Justice Society of America.

Logo-The comic book title as it appears on the cover or title page.

LSH-Legion of Super-Heroes.

Marvel chipping-A defect that occurred during the trimming process of 1950s & 1960s Marvels which produced a ragged edge around the comic cover. Usually takes the form of a tiny chip or chips along the right-hand edge of the cover.

nn or no #-No number.

Origin- The story which details the coming into existence or use of a Super Hero, or the Super Hero's powers.

p-Art pencils.

S.A. - Silver Age.

Silver Age- Comics printed between the years 1956 and1969.

Eye-appeal: The final grade given any book is determined by how appealing the book appears to the eye. Therefore, defects to the back cover affect the grade less than the same defects to the front cover. A final grade is the sum of all positive and negative aspects of a book. Since eye-appeal is subjective, grading is an art and not a science. Defects that disturb one collector may not be a factor to another.

In making your grade, use these guidelines as a general consensus of most knowledgable collectors and dealers.
